

Appendix A: Patient Questionnaire

1) I find the names of my medications confusing.

Agree Strongly                      Agree                      Uncertain                      Disagree                      Disagree Strongly

2) Which part of the drug name, metoprolol succinate, is the active ingredient?

Metoprolol                      Succinate                      Uncertain

3) Do you think these medications are the same: Benazepril HCL and Benazepril HCTZ?

Yes                      No                      Uncertain

4) Do you think these medications are the same: Losartan Potassium and Losartan?

Yes                      No                      Uncertain

5) If I had a "sulfa" allergy, I would be concerned about starting a medication named Glucosamine Sulfate?

Agree Strongly                      Agree                      Uncertain                      Disagree                      Disagree Strongly

6) If I were on a low-sodium diet, I would be concerned about starting a medication named Warfarin Sodium?

Agree Strongly                      Agree                      Uncertain                      Disagree                      Disagree Strongly

7) My physician/prescriber discusses the name and use of new medications with me.

Agree Strongly                      Agree                      Uncertain                      Disagree                      Disagree Strongly

8) My pharmacist discusses the name and use of new medications with me.

Agree Strongly                      Agree                      Uncertain                      Disagree                      Disagree Strongly

9) Age?

---

10) Gender?

Male                      Female

11) Educational Status

Some School                      High School Graduate                      College Graduate
Post Graduate

12) How many prescription medications do you currently take?

---