

Appendix 1. The 16-item "Attitudes to Pharmacy Practice Research" scale

Please indicate your level of agreement with each of the following statements relating to pharmacy practice research. Please tick appropriate box.

	Strongly disagree	Disagree	Neither agree or disagree	Agree	Strongly agree
1. Pharmacy practice research should be an important component of the undergraduate pharmacy curriculum
2. Pharmacy practice research projects and training should be incorporated into various undergraduate units of study
3. Pharmacy practice research projects and training should be incorporated into externships and clinical placements
4. Including pharmacy practice research training in the undergraduate pharmacy curriculum is necessary
5. I enjoy discussing or listening to discussion of pharmacy practice research studies or applications in pharmacy practice
6. I enjoy reading pharmacy practice research studies in the literature
7. I find people who do pharmacy practice research very interesting
8. I would enjoy working on a pharmacy practice research project
9. I am confident in my ability to understand research and research terminology related to pharmacy practice.
10. I am confident in my ability to design a pharmacy practice research project
11. I am confident in my ability to evaluate research findings in terms of their application to pharmacy practice
12. Pharmacy practice research is important in identifying and investigating problems in pharmacy
13. Pharmacy practice research is important to pharmacy decision-making
14. Academic staff in the faculty place a great emphasis on pharmacy practice research
15. Academic staff in the faculty discuss their practice-based research interest in class
16. Academic staff in the faculty encourage undergraduates to participate in pharmacy practice research activities					